Singers Companye (Akron OH)

Dr Samuel Gordon, Director

Works by:
Eberlin, Kocsar, Saint-Saens,
Gounod, Fauré, Aquilanti, Carnahan

Founded in 2007 by director Samuel Gordon, Singers Companye is a chamber choir of professional singers from northeast Ohio. In 2008, as the choir-in-residence for the Corofest Italia festival, the ensemble performed in Assisi, Bologna, Perugia, Pistoia, Tolosa Spain. "They compromise a highly disciplined, cohesive ensemble that is responsive to words and expressive subtleties. Gordon has established warm blend, true pitch and smoothness of vocal motion." - Donald Rosenberg, Cleveland Plain Dealer. This concert will explore rarely performed masses by Ernst Eberlin and Hungarian composer Miklos Kocsar; motets by Renaissance masters, along with French Romanticists Saint-Saens, Gounod and Fauré; New works by American composers: Giancarlo Aquilanti & Craig Carnahan.
